100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin; rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va. ; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number ; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing ; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

I. T. STODDERT,
West Hatton, near Allen's Fresh Post-Office, Charles county, Maryland.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN off from my plantation on the 25th inst. a bright Mulatto Slave, named,

He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high. active and intelligent, stammers a little when spoken to, with a large scar on his upper lip, grey eyes and curly hair, which he generally keeps cut and combed in fashion.—He had on when he ran away, brown linen trowsers and shirt, a leather apron and a checked handkerchief, red and blue, tied around his waist, a pair of New England sale shoes, no other clothing with him. I will give for him to be secured in any jail out of the state of Virginia, of District of Columbia, so that I get him again, 100 dols. If taken in Washington or Georgetown $30; if in Alexandria town or county, 50 dolls. or if in any town or county in Virginia, 50 dollars, and all reasonable charges, if delivered to me, or to the jailor of Fairfax county, who is authorised by this advertisement, to receive him, for safe keeping.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description. I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia ; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands ; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands ; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. TUESDAY, AUGUST 17, 1819.

It is stated in the New-York Columbian, that the officers of our Mediterranean squadron have subscribed 3000 dollars, to erect a marble monument over the remains of Captain THOMAS GA BLE, who died in October last, at Pisa. This act reflects additional credit on the generous and brave officers of the American navy, who, generally speaking, are not less remarkable, as gentlemen, for magnanimity and other accomplishments, than for skill, and cool unshrinking intrepidity in battle.

[Franklin Gaz.

New-Orleans, July 19

We understand that one of the boats sent by Commodore Patterson in pursuit of the pirates, overtook and captured several of them; that the officer put them in irons, and sent a gunner and four men to conduct them to town, while he went in pursuit of the others. Two of the men rose upon the gunner, beat him down, and threw the other two, who remained faithful, into the bayou; after which they released the pirates, one of whom drew a knife, and, wounding the gunner in a most shocking manner, threw him into the woods, where he was picked up and brought to town.—The villains made off with the boat.

Would it not be advisable, in addition to the measures which have been pursued with so much promptness by the Navy, to adopt other modes to scour the country, and prevent the escape of such daring wretches?

New-York, August 11.

Governor Clinton, by proclamation, has ordered the removal, from Grand Island, in the Niagara river, of all the occupants of the same, previous to the first of November next. [Gazette.

Detroit, July 30.

The U. S. Branch Bank at Chilicothe has recently refused to pay a draft to the amount of about 10,000 dollars in specie. The specie was, as we are informed, wanted by governor Cass, to fulfil a stipulation contained in some of the Indian treaties. Mr. Robert A. Forsyth, of this city, was the bearer of the draft, and having learnt that the money would not be paid to him, he had the draft protested.

Baltimore, August 14.

CAUTION.

We have seen a counterfeit three dollar note of the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, which has been received in a store in Howard street. The execution of the counterfeit is sufficiently good to deceive a careless observer; but by comparing it with the real note, the following differences are very perceptible:—The tail of the Beaver in the counterfeit, is encompassed by a black line, which gives it a clumsy appearance; and the skin of the whole animal appears to be smooth, whereas in the true note, the long hair is conspicuously represented.—The eye of the animal, in the counterfeit, is a distinct black circle with a white centre; in the genuine note the eye is radiated, and no white. In the abbreviation, Co. in the true note, there are two commas under the flourish, which are not in the counterfeit. The signature of the cashier is extremely well imitated in the counterfeit, with the exception of the last letter of the name—the y in the counterfeit is narrower at the top, the hair stroke is not so long, and the flourish at the bottom is more free han in the genuine signature. The signature of the president is badly done—the first letter appears to be an N. instead of an H. and the stroke across the last H. in the counterfeit, is nearly at the top of the letter, whereas in the genuine note it is below the middle of the letter. The ink of the counterfeit note is much blacker than that of the genuine, and all the letters, if closely examined, will be found to be much thicker and more clumsily executed.

FRANCIS DUFFIN.

We are assured, on unquestionable authority, that some of the facts stated in the account of the death of this young man, as published in our last, are essentially incorrect. So far from his death having been produced by starvation, and his having struggled on from Baltimore "two or three days and nights without any thing but water"—the fact is, he had been living in Falmouth from the 12th of July to the 1st of August. He worked at his trade, with a respectable tradesman of that place, in whose family he lived, & was well treated. On Sunday, the first of August, he determined to set out for Richmond. He then had some money of his own; but a benevolent young gentleman, who had become interested in the fate of the stranger, gave him some money at parting, in addition to his own stock. On Monday, the 2d, this same young gentlemen (who is now in Falmouth, and can attest the fact,) having been at the Bowling-Green on business, met Mr. Duffin a few miles from that place travelling on foot. He stopped and conversed with him—gave him more money, and directed him to the house of a relation in the neighborhood where he would have been kindly taken in. He did not then complain of any great fatigue or hunger. He must must have reached the Bowling-Green within a few hours from that time, and the following day it seems he died. Comment is needless.

THE PRICALY HEAT.

An Englishman arrived in this city a few weeks ago, and being very much troubled with the prickly heat, he went into his bed room and spunged his body all over in some vinegar and cold water. The consequence was, he was a corpse within five hours!

ICE PUNCH.

A few days since, two brothers, Irishmen, feeling thirsty, yet being fearful to drink water, went into a tavern and drank a bowl of ice punch. They both expired in less than twelve hours.

These facts are mentioned in the hope that they may operate as cautions. To them we would add that a citizen died a few days since, in consequence of having ate heartily of hot corn and water melons. An indulgence of appetite, at this season, is peculiarly dangerous, unless it be under the government of experience.

COMMUNICATION.

A duel was fought on Friday last at Hoboken, between two of the officers of the U. S. ship Hornet, wherein midshipman J. B. Nones received the fire of his antagonist, midshipman T. Tilden, and discharged his own pistol in the air. Much credit is due to both these gentlemen for their honorable and decisive conduct in this personal rencontre, and we are happy to state, it terminated without loss of life. Mr. N. received a slight wound in the right shoulder, of which he has recovered.—From the circumstances that have come to our knowledge, we are in duty bound to say, that this gentleman's conduct cannot be surpassed in courage and justice—without imputing any thing to the contrary on that of Mr. T. [N. York Gaz. Aug. 12.

Nathan Foster was executed on Friday last, in Delawere county, for murder, in pursuance of the sentence of his honor Judge Woodworth.—It is matter of regret, that he gave no evidences of penitence or contrition, but stubbornly persisted in asserting his innocence to the last.

A negro man, belonging to Mr. John M. Smith, of Alexandria, Louisiana, was tried on the 9th of July, on the charge of having attempted to assassinate his mistress. He was convicted, and sentenced to be hung on the succeeding day. Mrs. Smith, who had received several severe wounds, is said to be on the recovery.

MURDER.

On the 10th, Mr. Charles Mallory, at his house on Eagle creek, in Scott county, Ky. was barbarously murdered without provocation, by a young man of the name of Ferril Davenport, who then resided at his next neighbor's. Mallory was lying in his porch, at noon, supposed to be asleep, when Davenport came up, and stabbed him, so that he died in a few minutes. No other motive for this deed is known, but the inability and refusal of Mr. Mallory to lend him a bridle, for which he had previously applied. The murderer immediately fled, and has not yet been apprehended. The horse on which he rode away, has been found at Mr. J. Waller's, in Clarke county, and a bay mare, with a blaze in her face, belonging to Mr. Waller, is missing. Davenport is about 18 or 19 years of age, about 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, a little freckled, and has curly hair of a sandy cast. A reward of two hundred dollars for his apprehension, so that he may be brought to justice, is offered by Mr. Robert Mallory, brother to the deceased.

The circumstances of this horrid murder should stimulate every good citizen to use his exertions to apprehend its perpetrator. Mr. Mallory, we are informed, has left a wife and several children, and was an industrious inoffensive citizen.

Boston, August 6.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in the county of Plymouth, dated Tuesday, 3d inst.

"Yesterday in the afternoon we witnessed one of the most tremendous and awful thunder storms ever known in this part of the country. For at least thirty minutes there was one continued blaze and roar from the grand artillery of Heaven, attended with hail and rain in almost solid columns; and to add to the sublimity of the scene, and awful grandeur of the view, five barns, struck by the lightning, were in flames in sight from our house.—After the storm, we heard the melancholy information of the death of Mr. Hatel, about 23 years of age, killed by the lightning passing over his breast."

New-Haven, August 10.

NOBLE ACT.

As the Huntress packet, Capt. Beecher, was returning from N. York last week, a child of Mr. Hoyle, recently from England, by some unlucky accident, fell overboard. The wind blew fresh, and the unhappy parents beheld in agony their only son on the brink of eternity, without any ray of hope that he could be rescued. In this distressing moment, while the vessel was passing rapidly through the water, the helmsman, Joseph Stevens, sprang from the quarter deck, committing himself to the waves, with the noble resolution of saving the infant or perishing in the attempt. He seized the child as it was sinking, and held him above water to convince the wretched parents that he was still alive. The packet by this time had left them about half a mile and was with much difficulty rounded to. Captain Beecher immediately manned his boat and pushed to their assistance. Just as he reached them, poor Joe's strength was exhausted, and he sunk, leaving the child to its fate. Captain Beecher, with great presence of mind, as he seized the child with one hand, plunged the other under water up to the arm-pit, and luckily succeeded in raising the sailor. Both Joe and the child were apparently dead. After rolling them in salt, however, and applying all the restoratives which are usually employed on such occasions, they both revived, and we are happy to state, are doing well. The rich men boast of their charity, and princes of their nobility; but never did any rich man perform a more disinterested act of benevolence—never did any prince achieve a more honorable one, than did this poor sailor, in restoring to the arms of its parents their only child, by snatching it from the grasp of death, at the risk of his own life.

The wreck of the brig Orleans, captain Smith, arrived at Portsmouth, (N. H.) last Wednesday, in 55 days from Liverpool.—She was run foul of at sea, on the 29th June, by a British transport from Demerara, with troops for Portsmouth. The following are the particulars of the disaster, furnished by capt. Smith.

"June 29, in lat. 41 40, long. 35, at half past 11 P. M. the Orleans standing to the N. W. by W. with her larboard tack on board, wind S. W. with all sails set, two ships were discovered very near on the weather bow steering E. S. E. which were passing us, when instantly a third appeared directly ahead and close aboard. The helm of the Orleans without alternative was put hard to port, and she had fallen off nearly before the wind, and every exertion was made to clear the ship, hailing her several times as loud as possible, without answer, she continued her course, and run her jibboom in between our main and trisail-mast, with the officer on deck and all the watch except the man at the helm asleep, taking the cap of her bowsprit directly against our mainmast, which broke it off in the partners of the upper deck, and carried it overboard with all the sails and spars, being broken and split to pieces—also parted all the main shrouds and back stays on the larboard side—took away the foretopmast, sails and spars, leaving nothing standing but the foremast, foreyard and bowsprit. The crackling alarmed the commodore and officers who were below asleep. The first answer we obtained was from one of our own men, three of whom had jumped on board the ship, supposing the brig sinking. It was long before we could get the ship's crew to lay their sails aback that they might not sink us.—In the junction of the vessels they broke in our larboard waist near the main chains, broke the gunwhale, split the plank share, broke all the plank in the upper and lower decks, split a beam in the lower hold, and started some knees between decks. We found 3½ feet water in the hold, which the crew of the ship assisted in pumping out, while the carpenter and men were employed in stopping leaks to keep us from sinking—in this situation we remained ten hours, before the wreck was cleared. The commodore finding it was my determination not to abandon the brig, or be towed into port, assisted us in getting up a spare foremast, and the trisailboom we had saved, for a jurymast; he likewise supplied us with a tierce of beef and a sack of bread, for which he charged the moderate price of 45 dollars; and then left us without a sail set except the foresail, which was banging to the foreyard without braces. These ships were British transports of 500 tons each, from Demerara, with troops, for Portsmouth, commanded by com. John Palmer viz. the ——, Arm. No. 34, who run us aboard; Almira, No. 29; Minerva, No. 32."

LATEST FROM TEXAS.

In letters from an officer in the Patriot army, under date of the 28th of July, the writer says—"General Aradonda, commanding the Royalists, is now moving towards us in full force—the Indians are annoy him on all sides, and have taken prisoners from him and sent them to us—the people here none more sanguine of success—recruits are joining us daily."—"From my knowledge of the Indians and their language, there can be furnished, if necessary, two thousand warriors."

Extract of a letter from La Guayra, July 23, 1819.

"The Grand Margarita armada composed of 20 armed vessels and 4 transports, having on board 950 English & Germans, and 200 Creole troops, sailed on the 13th, from Margarita, and on the 15th, effected a landing at Pozuelos, 3 leagues from Barcelona, which place was taken on the 18th. Our army is at some distance in the interior, but are ere this, marching against the enemy. Our fleet has gone to windward, and if they fall in with the enemy, will give good account of them. The greatest tranquility prevails in this city, Caracas, and the country round—business very dull Produce high and scarce."

FROM BATAVIA.

Salem, August 10.

The day before the Nancy-Ann sailed, (April 28) there was a Dutch coasting brig arrived there from Samarang, which was attacked on the passage by six armed prows; but beat them off with the loss of two men killed on board the brig.

The coast of Java, to the eastward of Batavia, is much infested by those piratical villains. It will be necessary that all vessels bound there, should be armed, and a good look out kept night and day. Several vessels have lately been attacked, and a short time since an English brig was taken by them.

The Dutch have several men of war there, of different descriptions, among others are several gun boats, but they are of little use.

Produce of the Island very high at Batavia; very little of the old crop of coffee or rice remaining on hand. New crop nearly ripe.

The last government sales of coffee, 17th April, was at 29 dols. It was got up to these enormous prices by the merchants there, who find consignments from the U. S. and Holland, with unlimited orders to purchase coffee. A cargo of 6,000 piculs was shipped on board an American vessel while capt. Osgood was there, which cost on board 37 dols. per picul, or 222,000 dls. for the cargo, which, at 5 per cent. gave the purchaser the handsome sum of 11,100 dollars commissions.

Before the sale of the 15th commenced, it was the prevailing opinion among the merchants that it would not go higher than 20 or 21 that is 24 or 25 dolls. on board. But one who had an order from Holland to purchase a large quantity, with very high limits, took care to make it known at the sale, by which he succeeded in getting nearly up to his limits.

It will be necessary for all commanders of vessels who go to Batavia, to use the greatest precaution, or they will be brought in for a fine before they are aware of it, and those who have been there before, are the most likely to be taken in.

THE NIMROD, CENTRE.

This ship brings the latest news from Europe We have the London papers of the 16th, 17th and 18th of June, three days later than before received. We have to-day noticed their contents.

At Havre, on the 13th of June, 100 bales Georgia Cotton sold at 1f. 65c.; 55 do. do. Pernambuco, 2f. 60c.; 50 do. Bourbon, second quality, 80c.—7 tierces Carolina Rice, at 34f.

At paris, on the 16th of June 55 bales of Pernambuco Cotton, 2f. 90c.

The foreign enlistment bill was still under consideration in the House of Commons. Several petitions were read against the passage of the bill; one was read from the inhabitants of Liverpool, stating that they had many commercial transactions with the people of South America, and that if the bill was passed it would prove very injurious to them.

The Cotton Manufactories' Bill was discussed in the House of Lords on the 16th of June, and ordered to be recommitted on the suceeding Friday.

The King of the Netherlands has interdicted all the Popish processions except two, the one to take place on the Sunday after Corpus Christi Day, and the other to be left to the choice of the Bishops. He has also interdicted all fantastical dresses, &c. on those occasions, as productive of scandal to religion, and disorder to the public peace. London, June 16.

A very highly respectable house in the Dutch trade stopped payment yesterday morning. From the high credit the house holds, and the surprise it has evidently caused it is impossible to anticipate the result. The letters from Hamburg also notice the failure of the house of Messrs. Elliot & Co. whose accounts are said to be rather considerable.

Accounts were received yesterday, that the Carslisle weavers, on Thursday last, returned to their employment, after having diminished their demands 1s. a cut. They have certainly conducted themselves with great moderation considering their number, which amounted on some occasions to not less than two thousand.

London, June 18.

The Regent's Drawing Room, in celebration of His Royal Highness' Birth-day.

In consequence of the lamented death of the Queen, the Prince Regent, guided by the precedent of George II. who after the death of Queen Caroline, held drawing-rooms for the reception of Ladies, judiciously resolved, for the encouragement of trade and manufactures, to hold a similar Court yesterday, on the occasion of the celebration of the natal day of his Royal Highness; and the Queens House was prepared for the purpose in an appropriate style. The morning was ushered in with ringing of bells, the Park and Tower guns were fired at one o'clock; and all the usual State forms and military display took place, to the infinite gratification of the most numerous concourse of spectators we ever beheld on a similar occasion. The Prince Regent proceeded from Carlton House to the Queen's House about one o'clock, escorted by a party of Life Guards, amidst the ardent plaudits and loud huzzas of the populace. His Royal Highness was soon followed by the Duchess of York, the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, the Duke of Kent, the Princess Sophia of Gloucester, and Prince Leopold, all in state; the Duke of York went in private. The company began to arrive soon after twelve, and were so unprecedentedly numerous, that the whole had not sat down till near five, though many got out of their carriages, and walked from a considerable distance to the Palace.

The Regent having received the congratulations of those entitled to the entre, he proceeded to the grand saloon, and took his station in the front of the throne. The princess Augusta took her station on the Regent's left. The Duchess of Gloucester, Princess Sophia of Gloucester, the Duke of Gloucester, the Dukes of York and Kent, principally remained opposite the Regent.

It was one of the most brilliant and numerously attended Courts ever witnessed. Besides the members of the Royal Family, the Ministers and officers of State, the speaker of the House of Commons, the Judges and Crown Lawyers, an unprecedented Crowd of the Nobility and Gentry, were present.

Paris papers to the 15th inst. have been received, but their contents are unimportant.

Singular simplicity prevails in the Parisian ladies' dresses, long waists, bound with a Scots ribband, plain muslin gowns, straw hats or white bonnets—and this is the ton!

A correspondent in Edinburgh writes under the date of June 12. as follows:—"We have authority to state, that a misunderstanding which has taken place between a Nobleman residing in the County of Edinburgh, and a Gentleman of this City, has been settled in a manner honorable to the parties, and satisfactory to the persons who had an opportunity of offering advice on the occasion."

MEETING AT HANSLET MOOR.

This mischievous meeting took place on Monday last, on Hunslet Moor, near Leeds, when, after several seditious harangues, it was agreed that an inflammatory declaration should be signed, "for the information of all whom it may concern." Bremen, June 3.

Accounts from Russia, say, that the deficit of the great house of Zur, Kebacker & and Kleen, is estimated at 2,000,000 of roubles, and it was feared that this failure would produce many others at Petersburg and elsewhere, particularly in Holland.—The private coffers of the Emperor Alexander have a claim of above a million of Roubles, and many Noblemen have experienced losses more or less considerable.—The chief partner of this house has put an end to his own existence. There are above 800 German emigrants at Hamburgh, Altona, and the neighborhood, waiting for an opportunity to go to Brazil. The number of these emigrants increase daily. The greater parts are subjects of Wirtemburg, Darmstadt, and of the Palatinate.

Mentz, June 9.

From the 17th of April to the end of May the number of emigrants to America, who have passed by our city, down the Rhine, 1162, viz. 313 men, 262, women, and 580 children; 683 of whom were from Wirtemburgh, of whom 378 were of the sect called Separatists. There was one man of 64 years of age, with his wife and fourteen children.

Manheim, June 4.

Nothing more is said of Sandt. Our Gazette observes a silence upon this subject that is supposed to be commanded by authority, and for that reason excites more strongly the curiosity of the public. The official notification with respect to this assassin is impatiently expected What appears certain is, that he still lives, though there has appeared at Leipsic a dialgue between him and Kotzebue, in the regions of the dead.

On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port To'acco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
